UMPIRE HOFFNER GETS HIS RELEASE

Gregory Gave Him His Walking Ticket Yesterday-Colliflower May Come.

League, announced that he had paid former Umpire Hoffner his salary up to date, and had given him his release.

Mr. Gregory would not state his reasons for letting Hoffner go, but it has been known for some time that the man has not been giving entire satisfaction, and that some action would be taken.

Mr. Gregory stated that he was now scouting about for another man to take Hoffner's place, and that he is in communication with two or three arbiters whom he thinks will make good. The only one of these that he would mention was Harry Colliflower, formerly of Washington, but who is now working at this business somewhere in New York.

washington, but who is now working at this business somewhere in Now York.

Colliflower is an old teammate of Umpire Handiboe, and has been handling the indicator for a number of years. That he will make good should be accept the offer of the Virginia League officials is certain, for he has been popular with both fans and players alike wherever he has served.

The renovated Colts took a fall out

The renovated Celts took a fall out of Winn Clarke's team yesterday afternoon in a game fraught with severa; harmless mix-ups, costly errors on the part of the visitors, daring base-running by the locals, and a hair-raising finish, which gave the game to the home team by a score of 4 to 1.

The victory was most gratifying to the club-owners, public and extManager Shaffer, for it cannot but be counted as a good omen that the team won on the first day under the new management of Raiph Reeve, who has succeeded Charles Shaffer in this position. Not only was Reeve himself very much pleased over the fact that he won his first game as manager of the Richmond baseball team, but Mr. Bradley was about the happlest magalive when the last man on the Rochnock team was out in the ninth laning. Just before Umpire Hoffner started the game he called ex-Manager Shaffer from his seat on the bench, and gurrounded by the players of both teams, presented the out-going leader with a handsome gold watch fob. which was a tribute from the men who have worked under him. The fob is an elegant solid gold one, uniquely made in the shape of a woven roop, which is
